We are saddened to inform Members of the passing of Jon English yesterday.

A true all-rounder within the Australian entertainment industry, Jon's career spanned across contemporary music, theatre, musicals, film and TV.

Jon broke out into Australia's performance scene in 1972 through his role as Judas in Jesus Christ Superstar at the young age of 22. From then on Jon's career excelled. Notable achievements include writing the hit song Six Ribbons which topped charts internationally, winning a Green Room Award, an Aria Award, a TV Week Logie Award and three Mo Awards, playing the Pirate King in Pirates of Penzance and playing the leading role in the TV series All Together Now.

We extend our sincerest condolences to his wife Carmen, four children, family and his many friends and colleagues.

A public memorial will be held and details will be provided when they become available.
