Hannes Finger

LPA is saddened to inform Members of the passing of Hannes Finger on Saturday 13 February 2016 aged 81 at his home in Nana Glen.

Hannes worked with Opera Australia for approximately 40 years as a technician on stage and then in the workshop, eventually to become Workshop Director.

Hannes began his relationship with theatre in his early years on stage as an actor until he begun an apprenticeship with a theatre carpenter. From then on Hannes has worked with hundreds of designers on a multitude of projects until he retired in 2000.

Opera Australia will dedicate the performance of The Barber of Seville on Friday, 26 February 2016 in his memory.
