

October is National Safe Work Month. Live Performance Australia is committed to helping Members create safer working environments across the live performance, exhibition and cinema industries.

This year's theme is "A moment is all it takes...". LPA Members are encouraged to read the new Work Health and Safety Guidelines and familiarise themselves with best practice in delivering safe events, safe working environments and raise awareness of the practical and legislative requirements to manage health and safety issues properly. Members are encouraged to incorporate the LPA guidelines into their own work, health & safety plans, as well as promote the use of the material to non-members and others that may work in our industries.

A reminder that under Work Health and Safety legislation, it is the responsibility of the employer to:

- Maintain a safe workplace
- Maintain current Workers' Compensation insurance
- Protect yourself and your workers from financial hardship in the event of a workplace injury

LPA Members can login to access more information about their obligations under Work Health and Safety legislation.

Should you have any questions with regard to the new Work Health and Safety guidance material, please contact David Hamilton, Director, Workplace Relations at dhamilton@liveperformance.com.au or phone (03) 8614 2000.
