From the Chief Executive

Dear Member,

In September the LPA team has been preparing for the training sessions on the Code of Practice to Prevent Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Harassment and Bullying. A reminder that the Code is mandatory for all LPA Members. Click here to view the sessions on offer in your state. We look forward to seeing our Members at the Code training sessions.

LPA is proud to be supporting two mental health initiatives this month: the Arts Wellbeing Collective and Support Act.

Congratulations to Arts Centre Melbourne on receiving funding from the Worksafe, WorkWell Mental Health Improvement Fund. LPA Members are invited to the Official Launch of the Arts Wellbeing Collective on World Mental Health Day, Wednesday 10 October. Click here for event details.

Support Act has developed a suite of materials that are freely available for download to help promote its Wellbeing Helpline, which has been established with support from Levis and Alberts' The Tony Foundation. The Helpline is available to everyone in the industry. Click here to access these resources and read the media release.

If you have any industry issues you would like to discuss, please contact us at the LPA office.

Kind regards,

Evelyn Richardson
Chief Executive
