VALE

---

Fred Parslow

---

It is with great sadness LPA acknowledges the passing of Australian Actor Fred Parslow, on 26 January 2017.

Fred had a longstanding relationship with Melbourne Theatre Company, performing with them since 1955 for nearly three decades. His standout performances with MTC included Richard II (1963), Einstein (1981) and A Fortunate Life (1984).

MTC Executive Director Virginia Lovett said, 'Fred Parslow will always be a luminous part of MTC history and someone who we and our long-time subscribers will remember fondly. We extend our deepest sympathies to his family at this sad time.'

LPA would like to extend our sincerest condolences to Fred's family, friends and colleagues.
